Mohit Bakshi leads the Firm's Dispute Resolution and Litigation practice in the North region from our New Delhi office. With a focus on civil and corporate commercial disputes, Mohit is known for delivering sharp, result-driven legal strategies across a broad spectrum of industries, including pharmaceuticals, aviation, food processing, hospitality, and FMCG, among others.

His practice spans complex litigation and arbitration, with deep expertise in regulatory compliance, white-collar crime, shareholder conflicts, and statutory disputes under laws such as the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, and the Food Safety and Standards Act. Mohit is particularly adept at managing high-stakes matters involving government agencies and corporate regulatory bodies.

With appearances before the Supreme Court of India, multiple High Courts, NCLT, NCLAT, and consumer forums, Mohit brings a pan-India litigation perspective. He is recognized for his ability to draft compelling pleadings, provide strategic legal opinions, and drive dispute resolution outcomes across judicial and quasi-judicial platforms.
